

1 Sergeant Farmer told of payments without result
2 (Book 2, p. 264, line 8).

3 Reputation admitted that everybody including
4 prostitutes had to pay off (Book 2, p. 276, line 21).

5 Heimbigner: Operated Golden Horseshoe Tavern
6 between 1961 and 1965 (Book 2, p. 282, line 23).

7 Within 30 to 60 days after opening he began paying 8 officers Kuehl and Robinson $100 monthly in order to avoid 9 harassment (Book 2, p. 283, lines 9, 16, 21).

10 He also paid beat officers West Youngquist and 11 "Jerry" on occasions (Book 2, page 284, line 19).

12 Opened Atlas Club Steambath in 1964 (Book 2, 13 p. 285, line 21) and was told by Officers Robinson and 14 Kuehl that it would cost $200 a month to be allowed to 15 operate (Book 2, p. 286, line 19) and he payed that sum
16 1964 to 1968 (Book 2, p. 287).

17 Acquired the State⁹ Door Tavern in 1964 and sold in 18 1965 (Book 2, p. 288, line 22). He paid $15 weekly to 19 beat officers (Book 2, p. 289, lines 3, 15), but paid
20 nothing to relief officers (Book 2, p. 291, line 4).
21 Sergeant Reader asked for $200 a week but settled for $165
22 a week, which was paid 1966 to 1968 (Book 2, p. 292, 23 lines 4 - 25).

24 Barnett: Bookkeeper of Heimbigner, corroborating
25 his testimony (Book 2, beginning at p. 307).

26 Wells: Acquired the Madison Tavern in 1958, the 27 611 Tavern in 1962, the 614 Tavern in 1963 (Book 2, p. 314, 28 line 21), and sold them all in 1967 (Book 2, p. 315, line 1).
29 Three or four months after first acquisition in 1958
30 (Book 2, p. 315, line 23) he starts payments to beat
31 officers and makes first report to the F. B. I.
32

1 He pays $35 a month to officers Pete Gray, Harry
2 Hansen, Vic James, Harvey Noot, and Swede Nelson (Book 2,
3 p. 317, lines 1 - 9, 17). Sergeants Russell and Devine
4 successively bump price to $80 a month (Book 2, p. 318).

5 He pays officers Robinson, Kenny Hansen, Dick Vorris
6 and several others not remembered $40 a month at the 611
7 Tavern beginning in 1962 (Book 2, p. 318, lines 12 - 17).
8 Later Sergeant Devine bumps the price to $60 a month
9 (Book 2, p. 319, line 3).

10 He pays same group of beat officers at the 614
11 Tavern (Book 2, p. 319, lines 5 - 8) $50 a week beginning
12 in 1963 (Book 2, p. 319, line 11).

13 He is told he has to pay in order to avoid harass-
14 ment (Book 2, p. 319, lines 15 - 17) but he stops payments
15 in April 1966 after officers Noot and Jack Rinker tell him
16 that there's a report on the chief's desk from the F. B. I.
17 (Book 2, p. 320, lines 1 - 23).

18 He is told there will be harassment and after going 19 through this for a short while (Book 2, p. 321, line 4) he 20 goes to Chief Ramon to stop it (Book 2, p. 321, line 13).
21 *Cook present and Ramon asks if he has complained to the 22 F. B. I. rather than inquiring into the pay off allegation
23 (Book 2, p. 322).

24 Noot and Rinker thereafter threaten to take dance
25 license away (Book 2, p. 323, line 2) and later Noot
26 advises that he should sell because harassment will 27 continue (Book 2, p. 345, line 19).

28 Viesse: Operated stag nights for church group
29 involving dice and card playing (Book 2, p. 354, line 1).
30 On the 2nd Tuesday in October 1966 (Book 2, p. 355, line 9)
31 officer Hull demanded $500. for permission to operate
32 (Book 2, p. 356, line 15).

1 *Hull says he called Captain Cook (prima facie hearsay not
2 objected to) (Book 2, p. 357, line 5) but games close
3 because Viesse will not agree.

4 Romano: Bought Golden Goose Tavern in September
5 1965 and stold it in January 1967 (Book 2, p. 362, line 1).
6 Begins payments to beat officer Jack Rinker (Book 2, p. 362,
7 line 11 and p. 364, line 5) after period of harassment
8 (Book 2, p. 362, line 17).

9 Payment of $300 is demanded but payments of $100
10 monthly are agreed to and paid (Book 2, p. 363, line 15).
11 Citation issued by officer Hull of the Vice Squad (Book 2, 12 p. 367, line 18) convinces him to begin payments (Book 2, 13 p. 365, line 2).

14 Officers paid were Don Harris, Charles Harris and 15 "Flash" Gordon (Book 2, p. 368, line 21).

16 Parkin: Operated Spags Tavern and paid uniformed
17 officers (Book 3, p. 387, lines 19-21) $50 in envelopes
18 (Book 3, p. 387, lines 1 - 7) between 1963 and 1964 (Book 3, 19 p. 386, line 25).

20 Feigley: Owner of Spags Tavern had bartended make 21 payments (Book 3, p. 394) between 1963 and April 1964 (Book
22 3, p. 396). He made up envelopes (Book 3, p. 395, lines
23 3 - 5) and on occasion made payments himself (Book 3, p. 395,
24 lines 8 - 19) to officers in uniform (Book 3, p. 395, line
25 21). He paid $50 per month (Book 3, p. 396, lines 13 - 17)
26 in cash.

27 Schneider: Operated Silver Slipper Tavern and was 28 approached by officers Wes Youngquist, Andy Anderson, and 29 Don Kuehl for a pay off (Book 3, p. 404, lines 4 - 12) in 30 1965 (Book 3, p. 403, line 20). He complys with liquor
31

1 (Book 3, p. 404, line 17) but because of expense converts
2 to $50 a month payment (Book 3, p. 405, lines 9 - 14) to 3 three officers names above and others not remembered
4 (Book 3, p. 405, lines 18 - 21).

5 He begins pay offs at Don's Cafe as soon as he
6 opens his doors (Book 3, p. 406, lines 5, 19) in the fall
7 of 1967 (Book 3, p. 402, line 19) and reports them to the 8 F. B. I. (Book 3, p. 407, line 23 to p. 408, line 5). He 9 was also required to furnish Christmas liquor for the four 10 beat officers and two shift sergeants (Book 3, p. 405, 11 line 21).

12 Murray: Owned the Stage Door Tavern from May 1965
13 to May 1969 (Book 3, p. 431, line 20); was advised that a 14 few dollars would take care of any complaints (Book 3, 15 p. 433, lines 1 - 9) and keep the Sergeant happy. He talks 16 to Mayor Miller about the approach (Book 3, p. 434, lines 17 6 - 25) in the fall of 1966. He talks with Mr. LaVoie,
18 the Mayor's Assistant (Book 3, p. 435, line 1) and later
19 Chief Ramon met with him (Book 3, p. 435, lines 15 - 25)
20 and $50 in marked money is made available (Book 3, p. 436, 21 lines 1 - 9).

22 The set-up didn't work (Book 3, p. 436, lines 15 -
23 23) and he later confronts officers Zack and Potter
24 (Book 3, p. 432, line 15) at a hearing.

25 *Assistant Chief Cook and others are there to hear his 26 story (Book 3, p. 438, lines 7 - 10) and he indicates
27 willingness to take the polygraph (Book 3, p. 438, line 25)
28 but no action is taken (Book 3, p. 440, line 3).

1 OFFICERS WHO COLLECTED FROM BUSINESS ESTAB-
2 LISHMENTS OR PASSED MONEY TO THEIR SUPERIORS

3 Keenan: In 1948 he was assigned a beat on Box 1339
4 in Skid Road (Book 3, p. 353, lines 7 - 12). He collected
5 $75 a month from the Central Cardroom (Book 3, p. 453,
6 lines 15, 22), the J&M Cardroom (Book 3, p. 453, line 15)
7 and three to five beer parlors (Book 3, p. 454, line 1).
8 One-fourth went to him, one-fourth to his partner, N. H.
9 Hansen (Book 3, p. 454, line 18), and one-half to his 10 sergeant (Book 3, p. 454, line 7), Vern Stewart (Book 3, 11 p. 455, line 12). The take averaged $300 a month (Book 3,
12 p. 455, line 7) and he was there until 1950 (Book 3, p. 455,
13 line 18) until he went to Box 15 where he stayed four years
14 (Book 3, p. 456, line 2).

15 He collected from Carlo's Corner, a cardroom
16 (Book 3, p. 456, line 8), the Monterey Cafe, and a card
17 game at the Hour House (Book 3, p. 456, line 14).

18 He also collected from several taverns (Book 3, 19 p. 456, line 16) and the total take was up to $400 a 20 month (Book 3, p. 456, lines 21 - 24). His partner was 21 Joe Bergen but he didn't recall the names of others
22 (Book 3, p. 457, lines 3 - 8). He did not initiate pay-
23 ments from these establishments. His sergeants were 24 Vern Stewart and Virgil Webber (Book 3, p. 457, line 14).

25 He was assigned to the vice squad in 1953 and 26 left it in the spring of 1957 (Book 3, p. 458, line 22).
27 The members of the vice squad were sergeants Vern Stewart,
28 Bill Wright, Jack Ray and himself (Book 3, p. 459, line 17).

29 Sergeant Lee Scott replaced Vern Stewart in about 30 1957, while he was receiving money from Bill Wright
31 (Book 3, p. 459, lines 20 - 24).
32

1 The Vice Squad was then reporting to the Assistant
2 Chief, who was Art Chaffee (Book 3, page 460, line 8).

3 He was transferred to release, first squad of 4 Precinct One where he stayed three years (Book 3, p. 461,
5 line 23) but collections were left up to regular beat men
6 (Book 3, p. 461, lines 3 - 8).

7 Thereafter he worked Box 16 (Book 3, p. 462, line 6)
8 and received $50 from the New China Cafe (Book 3, p. 462,
9 line 13, and he shared it with his partner, Bennie
10 Rienderknecht (Book 3, page 462, line 25). Frank Amelio
11 was his sergeant at the time (Book 3, p. 463, line 2).

12 In 1962 he was assigned to Box 15 (Book 3, p. 463, 13 line 15) which is in the first squad, Precinct One, Patrol
14 Division (Book 3, p. 463, line 19) where he collected
15 $100 a month from Carlo's Corner (Book 3, p. 463, line 24), 16 and several beer parlors (Book 3, p. 464, line 1). The 17 take was between $200 and $400 a month (Book 3, p. 465, 18 line 1) which he shared with his partners, Hank Kush and 19 Bennie Rienderknecht (Book 3, p. 465, lines 5 - 7) and 20 his sergeant, Amelio (Book 3, p. 465, line 17).

21 On this box between 1962 and 1964 (Book 3, p. 466, 22 line 1) his sergeants were Lloyd Zeek and Amelio, and 23 they both received money from Keenan and his partners,
24 Kush and Rienderknecht (Book 3, p. 466, lines 13 - 17).

25 From 1964 to 1967 (Book 3, p. 469, line 24) he 26 was on Box 18 in Chinatown (Book 3, p. 467, line 5); 27 three Oriental clubs in the 650 block on King Street, and 28 a poker game on Jackson Street and the WahMee Club were 29 paying (Book 3, p. 467, lines 16 - 24) a total of $400 - 30 $600 monthly (Book 3, p. 468, lines 15 - 24), and up to 31 $1600 a month. His partner was George Herman (Book 3, 32 p. 469, line 5). He gave a quarter to his partner and
